REF: EOLA-18644

1. After noting from EOLA-2290 and having received confirmation from FOB per reference that frn FRANK is in fact Karl Hermann FRANK, we retraced this name. Forwarded herewith are the results of that retrace:

- a. A preliminary Interrogation Report dated 12 May 1945
- b. A memorandum on the character of the interrogation of FRANK dated 15 May 1945
- c. A memorandum requesting permission to interrogate FRANK in Czechoslovakia, dated 29 June 1945. (The answer to this memorandum is not available but was presumably negative.)
- d. A final interrogation Report No. 6, dated 7 July 1945.

2. EOLA-10976, dated 7 May 1954, contained an account by Q/KOLZEN of the history of the SOKOL organization in Czechoslovakia. After describing the measures taken by the Gestapo to suppress the SOKOL, Q/KOLZEN noted that K. H. FRANK, the Nazi protector of Bohemia and Moravia formally terminated the activities of the SOKOL center by decree stating therein that it was the "breeding ground" of covert and overt resistance against the Reich.
The Gestapo action and this decree allegedly paralyzed the possibility of mass resistance stemming out of the SOKOL.

3. Tracing of the other names mentioned in the attachment to reference are in progress and will be forwarded when complete.
